

Accidents happen

But you can be prepared for the unexpected.

You work hard to support your family, pay bills and save money. And when accidents happen, your health insurance helps cover doctor appointments and other medical care needed to treat your injury.

But accidental injuries often lead to unexpected out-of-pocket medical costs that aren't covered, like your health deductible. You may also need to pay for extra help with housekeeping or yardwork, takeout or delivery meals, or transportation to and from appointments. These costs can add up quickly at a time when you should be focused on your health, not worried about your finances. By pairing Accident Insurance with your medical plan, you can extend your health coverage and protect your family, lifestyle, and finances from the unexpected.

How many times have your family and friends experienced accidental injuries?

How would you cover out-of-pocket medical expenses and other costs of $5,000 or more?

How did it create an unexpected emotional or financial strain on the household?

Which LifeSecure solutions would be a good fit for you or your family to provide financial support and help with additional costs after an accident?

Accident insurance pays cash benefits directly to you to help with:

- Medical deductibles, co-pays or co-insurance
- Physical therapy/rehabilitation services
- Prescription medication
- Rent/mortgage or other daily bills
- Help with housekeeping and yardwork
- Childcare services
- Lost wages if you're unable to work
- Anything else - you decide how to use your benefits
